Will not God then secure the rights of his chosen ones who call out to him day and night?

THE PERSISTENT WIDOW

Reading this parable about the unjust judge shows me again the generosity of God. God wants us to reach out and ask for help when the self-serving judge would really rather not have to deal with us. It appears that we can't wear God out with our pleas for justice! I am also reminded of Romans 8 where Paul talks about how the indwelling Spirit "intercedes for us with sighs too deep for words" when our words fail us, and we do not know how to pray. So encouraging!
