WATER INTO WINE

As I worked on this painting, my thoughts kept returning to two themes, the first being Mary's words to the servants: "Do whatever he tells you". I thought, "Well, it can't get much simpler than that! And the second was what I see as a demonstration of God's desire for our joy and well-being on this earth today, This action of Jesus transforming water into wine has so many facets to ponder and celebrate. ~ Vicki
